HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 440
By Givens

A RESOLUTION To congratulate Amber Hope Moore for outstanding work as an intern.

WHEREAS, Throughout the course of each legislative session, there have emerged certain individuals who far exceed the basic requirements set forth for them to follow; and

WHEREAS, Amber Hope Moore, of Maryville, has distinguished herself as one such individual through her work as a legislative intern for Representatives Ken Givens, Chair; Kathryn Bowers, Vice Chair; Stratton Bone, Secretary; and the other members of the House Agriculture Committee. Her efforts resulted in untold benefits for the members she served and for the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, A highly regarded student who is majoring in Political Science at Middle Tennessee State University, Amber has excelled both academically and in extracurricular activities; and

WHEREAS, She is the daughter of proud parents, Larry and Debbie Moore of Maryville, Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, During the 2001 legislative session, Ms. Moore has exceeded all standards with regard to the qualities that are expected of a dedicated and competent legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, She was instrumental in researching and communicating information regarding the extremely important issue of the Coordinated School Health Program and coordinating countless meetings regarding the issue; and

WHEREAS, She was also instrumental in providing and caring for Millie, the University of Tennessee's first cloned Jersey cow; and

WHEREAS, She has learned more than she will ever want to know about agriculture, such as the use of a can't suck, the size of an emu egg, and the proper use of twine, which does not include sitting under the representative's desk; and

WHEREAS, Office coworkers Fay Cashion, Robbie Farmer, and Juanita Davidson are very appreciative of Amber Moore for her upbeat attitude, willingness to pitch in, patience and understanding and thank her for a job well done; and

WHEREAS, Eager to learn more about the intricacies and idiosyncrasies of Tennessee state government and to aid in her studies, Amber Moore brought her many skills to the State Capitol for the 2001 session of the One Hundred Second General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Amber has performed her many responsibilities with extraordinary intelligence and alacrity; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That we hereby commend Amber H. Moore for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Chairman Ken Givens and the House Agriculture Committee and wish her much success in her future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
